Mobile Health Map

a program of Harvard Medical School

Mission

To measure, maximize, and communicate how mobile clinics improve health, save money, and advance equity.

What we do?

- Provide mobile clinic leaders with the tools and resources to measure and communicate their impact.
- Collaborate with researchers and frontline mobile clinic staff to evaluate, learn, and improve the work of mobile clinics.
- Share information with healthcare leaders, funders, and policymakers about the unique ways mobile clinics build trust, increase access, and improve health outcomes.
